

VOLUNTEERING

Showing Interest

By showing interest from no matter what age you are, is truly the start of your journey

1

YOUR START

FINDING MOTIVATION

2

Finding your Drive

Finding what drives you to do become a firefighter and making it pure willpower is the next step.

Learn about it

Do your research on the subject, find out the jobs you can volunteer and train for.

3

RESEARCHING
WHAT YOU CAN DO

CONNECTION

4

Get Personal Advice

Talk to current volunteers, or individuals in the department to get their input.

Sign up

Request to sign up for a Volunteer position

5

VOLUNTEERING

TRAINING

6

Certifications

Taking your starting certifications on becoming a firefighter, which vary depending on your duty.

Practice makes Perfect

By practicing for your Certifications and training to improve on them, it will show dedication to the department.

7

HARD WORK

SERVING

8

First Ride

After training, and being certified on all aspects of what you are volunteering to do, you will be permitted on your first scene

Dedication

Dedicating yourself to this cause and the community you protect and serve will prove you worthy of other tasks.

9

MOVING UP

OCTOBER

10

Leadership

For serving a long length of time, more and more positions will open up for you to be able to hold and train for.

Veterancy

Becoming a true veteran of the station and leading by example, and training the next generation of firefighters.

11

NOVEMBER

DECEMBER

12

Protect. Aid. Serve.

At this point you are truly, protecting, serving, and aiding your community. Allowing the community to grow.